

Long Island High School Psychology Fair

Information for Participants

Congratulations on being invited to the Long Island High School Psychology Fair. Please make sure to follow the instructions below in preparing for the fair. Best of luck!

Notes for School Liaisons

- Please file for payment promptly so you can meet the December 18 deadline, and remember to mail the Invoice along with the check.
- December 18 is also the deadline for the Guest Registration form; it should be emailed to LIPsychFair@aol.com

Students should prepare a 10-minute Power Point presentation on their topic.

- Do not identify your school anywhere in your presentation
- Save your presentation in Power Point 97-2003
- Bring your presentation on a flash drive AND email yourself a copy of the presentation AND bring a hard (printed) copy of the presentation.
- Presenters will not be permitted to distribute any handouts or other materials to the judges; make sure to put all important information in your Power Point presentation

Rules and Format

- Students are allotted up to 10 minutes to deliver their presentations
- The presentations will be followed by a 5-minute Question and Answer period
- Only the judges will be permitted to ask questions.
- No one may enter the rooms while a presentation is in progress.
- Presenters need to remain in their rooms for all presentations and attend the Awards Ceremony.
